

Privacy Policy

Introduction

Advanced Laser Clinics of the Quad Cities is committed to protecting the privacy of all visitors to its Web site. Our goal is to maintain the highest standards of Web site privacy so our visitors may comfortably and safely use the site for a range of information needs.

What Information We Collect

Our system routinely collects information about the origin and site navigation of our Web site visitors. This information is used only to help us continually modify the site based on use patterns and is not linked to any identifying personal information. We do not collect any personal or identifying data on site users unless the information is submitted as part of a request for service or information, such as requesting an appointment. Advanced Laser Clinics of the Quad Cities does not currently use "cookies". A cookie is a text file placed on the browser of Web site visitors to identify Web site use patterns.

Who Is Collecting The Information

The only people using aggregate Web site information are employees of Advanced Laser Clinics of the Quad Cities. If a visitor submits additional identifying information (as noted above) that information is available only to our staff.

How We Will Use The Information

Advanced Laser Clinics of the Quad Cities does not sell, share, or release any information about Web site users to third parties, unless requested to do by that user. Personal information about individual Web site users, as submitted as part of a service or information request, will not be shared in any way without specific consent from the user. However, we may disclose information when legally compelled to do so.

Consumer Choices

Personal information about Web site users is collected only as part of a request for service. If information is required in order to provide a service, the Web site user will be informed as to which information is optional and which is essential for the receipt of the service. Users have the option of asking that personal information be removed from our site once the service has been completed. Users also have the option of ending any subscription or request for information by submitting a cancellation request to quadcities@advancedlaserclinics.com.

Email Security

Our Web site allows users to contact us via email. However, normal email is not encrypted. Therefore, the possibility exists that unauthorized individuals may intercept email messages intended for us. Advanced Laser Clinics of the Quad Cities cannot be responsible for the privacy of email messages, except those stored in our system.

Updating Your Information

All information submitted to Advanced Laser Clinics of the Quad Cities may be reviewed and changed. In order to review or change your information, contact us at quadcities@advancedlaserclinics.com.

Notification of Changes

If Advanced Laser Clinics of the Quad Cities changes this privacy statement, we will post those changes on the Web site so our users are always aware of what information we collect, how we use it, and under what circumstances, if any, we will disclose it. Any such changes shall be effective as of the date they are posted on our Web site.
